In partnership with The Svenska Fotbolls Akademin, Boson Olympic Institute, Stockholm, Sweden.

“Outstanding facilities, breathtaking setting and fabulous organisation.
AMsportstours provides the best blend for players, parents and coaches.”

Overview

The Sweden Soccer Tour is based at the Boson Olympic Institute, in Stockholm, Sweden. Stockholm is one of Europe's most stunning cities comprising of a series of islands and canals. The old, yet well preserved buildings and vibrant old town of Gamla Stan are always a big hit with the parents and coaches in the evenings. The players enjoy world class facilities at the Swedish Olympic Institute at Boson where excellent en-suite accommodation and dining are available. We are delighted to work with the Svenska Fotbolls Akademin whose coaches work with Swedish national team players of all ages and work with our touring teams too.

Players receive professional coaching and Q&A from two times European Cup winner and Bayern Munich Head of Youth Football Bjorn Anderson, a SVFA coach, at the stunning Boson training complex.

Players are given the strip of an Adidas team, here Real Madrid, and play in the Adidas Cup mixing with players of other nationalities. Always a big hit at the end of practice session.

Parents enjoy exploring Stockholm which offers plenty to do and see year round and is one of Europe's most stunning cities. Stockholm proves ideal as it is safe, clean and entertaining.

Sweden

The Scandinavian city of Stockholm is Sweden's capital and until visited is sometimes overlooked in favour of Europe's more southern cities. Sweden has much more to offer than ABBA and I have always been amazed by the warmth and intelligence of the people, whose laid back approach to life in a country where everything seems to work seems a wonderful contradiction. For visiting football teams Stockholm is a dream tour destination with an excellent standard of men's and women's football, live professional games in the summer for the group to attend, an excellent climate, bi-lingual hosts and all in the entertaining city of Stockholm which proves a hit with every visitor we have had the pleasure to take there. For coaching, playing, sightseeing and entertaining Stockholm can provide you with the perfect blend.

Austin MacPhee – Managing Director, AMsportstours

Beautiful Stockholm has so much to offer such visitors with history, architecture, shopping, dining, old and new, great Swedish food and live football throughout the summer.

Testimonials:

"Austin MacPhee and AMsportstours have a passion for the game of football. Austin, with his depth of knowledge from playing and coaching football, lined up a nice blend of football games against Scottish clubs for my two sons' Charlotte United Futbol Club team, a great selection of professional football games to watch, stadium tours and training sessions, while leaving enough time to see the sights in St. Andrews, Edinburgh and other areas. This is the trip that both my boys and I enjoyed tremendously and if your family or team is interested in a soccer trip to Scotland , then I would highly recommend AMsportstours soccer tours. "
